

GAIL HOWELL

2nd GRADE TEACHER

Gail Howell grew up and currently lives in Oregon, Ohio. She graduated from Clay High School. She attended two years at Ohio Northern University with an English Secondary Education major before marrying her husband and raising two children. Ms. Howell continued her education at the University of Toledo and obtained her Bachelors in Education K-8 and Master's degree in Early Childhood. She taught for Toledo Public for 30 years, mainly in 2nd and 3rd grade, until she retired in 2013. She continued as a substitute teacher with several longterm positions.

Ms. Howell loves teaching and was very pleased to be asked to interview for the NOCA's second grade position. She is proud to be a member of the founding faculty in this classical school affiliated with Hillsdale College. Furthermore, she is anxious to start teaching the curriculum to her students.

Outside the classroom Ms. Howell can be found at family gatherings and sporting events with her three grandchildren. She also likes to exercise at the YMCA and her Refit class. She is active in her church and also enjoys traveling and socializing with her friends.
