

LYNN RODRIGUEZ

3RD GRADE TEACHER

Lynn Rodriguez was raised on a farm in Temperance, MI with 4 siblings. Her parents instilled in her the Christian core values of serving others, taking responsibility for her actions and living a life of integrity. With these values in mind, her parents managed to send all 5 of their children to a catholic school. After attending St. Anthony's school, Lynn transferred to Bedford Public Schools.

Lynn graduated from the University of Toledo with a Master of Education Degree in Early Childhood and Elementary Education. She's certified to teach grades 1-8. She also earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Psychology. Lynn is a member of Psi Chi, the International Honor Society in Psychology. She's been working in the field of education for 17 years, with experiences ranging from teaching Pre-K to 4th grade and working as a school psychology assistant.

Lynn is married to David, who is a Battalion Chief for The Toledo Fire and Rescue Department. They're looking forward to celebrating their 15th wedding anniversary this year. Lynn and David are close to completing the construction of their lakefront home in Michigan.

Lynn's favorite pastimes include traveling with her husband, visiting with family and friends and gardening.

Lynn states that she is excited to teach a classical curriculum. She believes that children will benefit greatly from a classical education, as it will help them to develop strong moral characters, along with cultivating their abilities to think and reason for themselves.
