

SARAH E. SPAULDING

ENGLISH TEACHER

Sarah E. Spaulding was raised in rural Henry county, Ohio on a hobby farm and graduated from Bowling Green State University with a BA in Communications and minors in both Vocal Performance and Political Science. She began her teaching career at Bowling Green Christian Academy where she taught for six years.

Mrs. Spaulding has been married for 19 years and enjoys living life with her husband, Gus, their two children, and a cat named Novee.

When her children were young, she read Susan Wise Bauer's book The Well Trained Mind and knew the classical model was the best way to educate children. Therefore, she started with her own children by home-schooling them for six years. Currently, Samuel is 17 years old and Natalie is 16 years old; they attend Lenawee Christian school in Adrian, Michigan.

Mrs. Spaulding was the Associate Teaching Director for Community Bible Study of Lenawee County for two years and loves digging into God's word. When she is not prepping for classes, Mrs. Spaulding can be found curled up with a book and a cup of hot tea. She enjoys historical fiction and the writings of C.S. Lewis among other theologians and apologists.

Mrs. Spaulding and her family currently reside in Temperance, Michigan. They moved from a country road to a neighborhood and find it quite lovely. She enjoys spending time cooking and engaging in family dinner discussions, which are the highlight of her day.

