

SAMANTHA MALCOLM

K-6th TEACHER

Ms. Malcolm recently earned her B.A. in Politics from Hillsdale College and is excited to move south to join the NOCA team! She has three younger siblings and spent her childhood in the Ohio communities of Sylvania, Uhrichsville and New Philadelphia.

Classically educated from the age of 8 years old, she is eager to inspire a love of learning in her students. Her favorite subjects include logic, art history, literature, theology, and politics.

In her free time, she enjoys oil painting, walking her two dogs named Wesley and Jessie at the park, dominating ultimate frisbee, playing European board games, and gardening.

“Classical education eschews indoctrination; rather, it fulfills the true purpose of education which is, as the word implies, to ‘lead forth.’” –Ms. Malcolm
